THE COAST INDIANS.

Their Government by the White People—A Decimated and Drowning Race.

Who is Responsible?—A Terrible Traffic—The Government's Imbecility.

Specially written for The Times.

There seems to be a common impression that the Indians are not worth saving, and that work or money spent on them is wasted. It is probable that a more contemptible idea never entered a human head.

They once owned this country; a capable race of good physique, with large skulls showing reflective and executive capacity, a thing rare among savages. They were accomplished craftsmen in wood, possessed textile arts, wrought in copper and had tribal government.

We came among them as gods; we, with our civilized life and its under stratum of moral and physical filth—sexual infamy, drunkenness, small pox, and the like, and the Indians are smothered and drowned in it. Some we have saved, others we have let perish in this underslough of ours. If it was in our power to save one we could save all; but mostly they drown, and we don't stretch out a hand to save them. It is murder to withhold aid from a drowning man—what is it to withhold aid from a drowning race? "Oh, but the drowning man is not worth saving!" Does the Almighty say that of us, think you? Briefly, if we don't save them at once we shall get punished.

Messrs. Duncan, Tomlinson, Collison and others saved the Tsimpsheans, who are fairly good citizens, and are increasing in numbers. But in the meantime the Hydahs, once the most numerous and powerful people on the coast, are reduced by prostitution to two villages. The Kwagutls, who numbered in 1855, about 7,000, have been indebted to us for small-pox, gin, and prostitution, and now number 1,836; and so on with the other nations. The people of the West Coast and Cowichan Agencies have been allowed to go to Puget Sound to pick hops, and pick up syphilitic and measles, of which I see they were sadly diminished by last return. The Chilkahmas were permitted, December 1887, having measles among them, to hold big potlatches and spread it, with a net result of 240 deaths, of which I have seen traces in buried up houses, the occupants being all dead. At least the Bella Bella tribe has recuited, and, finding that the women, when they come to Victoria only return home to die, won't let them come any more—a severe blow to the city's trade.

But let us see what the government is doing. An attempt was made early this spring to stop potlatching on the Nass, but the Nishgas arrested the magistrate. On the upper Skeena, a magistrate announced the law (7 Nov., 1888) at Gitwangak; which the Indians described as "weak as a baby" and deliberately defied. Among the Kwagutls an arrest was made; but the prisoner broke gaol; and I saw on 28th June at Mamalilleulish three thousand blankets piled up for prosecution at a potlach in defiance of the government. In the same agency I saw a manful attempt made this summer to stop women going down for prostitution to Victoria; and the steamboat company made such a row about being robbed of legitimate traffic that the poor weak Indian officer was rebuked to snubbing the officer who has had the courage to obey orders and do his duty in the matter. (This last is from independent testimony and personal observation.) That is what the Indian department is doing—principally "saving the honor to be" an honor which it has a very doubtful right to.

It was wise of government to interfere with a resolution made among the Gitkshians in December, 1887, to kill all the white people, from which three persons dissented; and to exhibit with a revolver bullett the fact that we object to anarchy among Her Majesty's Indian allies. But it was all spoilt and given the lie to when the government officially told the whites to get out of the country because protection was withdrawn from them, and it was not safe to remain. As citizens of the British Empire they declined to accept the notice, and were ready to escort the poor cowardly law out of the country had not that same law given itself the lie once more, and, for fear of public indignation, left a good magistrate on the Skeena. In connection with the one other recent government action among the coast Indians I notice the expatriation of some hundreds of them. Such is the way the Indians get governed by shackled officers of a blind law.

And what is the outcome? Amid much jubilation, Indian advancement, expensive surveys and medicine for old women, the Cowichan bands decreased by 84 persons in 1887 and 132 in 1888; the west coast tribes decreased 32 in 1887 and 201 in 1888; and the Kwagutl nation 32 in 1887, and 58 in 1888. Surely this is all that could be desired! Who could doubt the value of the present methods that so rapidly are solving the Indian question.

One of the curious features of the subject is the gigantic neglect of the Indian department's duty. There is nothing in the reports about Bella Coola, Kitamahl, Kit-kahtis, and many other of the middle coast villages; there is nothing about the Hydahs, Kishgars, or Gitkshians, no work being done for them, nothing but the mispelling of some of their tribal names and a grand masterly omission of any good done thereabout with the appropriations of public money, of which such a handsome balance can be shown on hand. There is an Indian agent in Metlakahtla with its 85 people whose jurisdiction is no west—reaching from Klahks-gush and Tkoldore to the west coast of Queen Charlotte Island and from the Nass river to dear knows how far south—that with ever so big a traveling allowance he could not go round the agency in a year. It is hard to see any use for his going, who will be officially sat upon should he do anything without consulting with the department until the necessary delay is worked by and the official reply gets officially granted.

Such is the prescription under which the Indian is so rapidly dying that soon he will not be available to catch salmon for us, and we shall be obliged to do without salmon or pay a high price for them. The next essay will be about the Indians' habits and is likely to be a revelation to many.

THE BOARD OF TRADE REPORT.

To the Editor of the Times:

Sir,—I have been looking with more than usual interest for the report of the Board of Trade, and, like you, sir, I am pleased to see they have wandered into free trade ideas. I hope no one will take fright at this name, which means, in a general way, peace on earth and good will to all mankind. The Board, I say, have wandered into the idea, for, clearly enough, they did not mean it. The circumstances were these: Lead is known to be abundant in our province, and the President of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company suggested to increase the import duty on lead, so as to encourage the mining of it. He anticipates that in a short time it would be produced here so cheaply that we could not only supply all Canada, but could supply China and Japan. I am a Free Trader, pure and simple, and do not approve of this way of promoting an industry, but one must remember the National Policy is based on protection and that the proposal of Mr. Van Horne was one made in the interest of British Columbia and to the Dominion, for some time at least, of the other provinces of Canada. The Board say it would injure the canning trade. I understand it might raise the price of solder a little, until it was produced in proper quantities here, but if it developed lead and silver mining there would be much more than a quid pro quo to this province. I will give a similar case. We have been led to hope that within a short time a sugar refinery will be established in Victoria, and we shall all rejoice to see it. The duty on sugar is about cent per cent and that doubling of the natural price of the article must be prejudicial to the canners of fruit whom we hope to see at work soon and to every consumer in the country. Now, sir, will the Board of Trade pretend they would advocate the abolition of the duty on sugar as a tax unjust to the growers and canners of fruit. They could not have the face to say so. The fact is the proposal was made by an official of the C. P. R.; that gave the Board an opportunity of being rude and they seized it. They say the extra duty was to be a protection to the C.P.R. What they mean by that save what I have said above, I cannot imagine. The Board tumbled into the light on the free trade question, and, though they did not mean it, we must rejoice that they were led in a way they knew not. I cannot say so much for them on the China steamer question. The president of the railway company was here a few days ago, and to our worthy mayor he gave the assurance that when the company's steamers were on, and that will be very soon, they will call at the outer wharf, if a very inexpensive alteration be made there. That was reported in The Times and the members of the Board knew that. Why could no member have the manliness to stand up and say what he knew?

Regarding the polite petition they have sent to London, I would like to tell them something. I know they were penning their absurd statements, for instance, that the C. P. R. wished to ruin Victoria because it imported goods from England, and were making themselves ridiculous in the eyes of English statesmen. The agreement between the government of England and the company for the subsidy had been signed and had been in the possession of the company for months. The vote of money always follows, no instance having occurred in the history of the parliament of England in which the house of commons did not fulfil any contract by voting the money. The members of the Board may be bamboozled into believing that their directors did something to bring about the running of the line or causing the steamers to call here; but all men out of this place know they have done nothing but make themselves, and in so far as they could manage it, they have tended to make this city, the laughing stock of the Dominion. The next time they correspond with the English government, I would recommend them to lay aside their Billingsgate; to state facts; then they may command attention from the statesmen of England. James Angus.

DONALD TRUTHS.

The Usual Weekly Budget of Matters, Mining and Otherwise.

Judge Vowell has lettuce heads that weight 36 ounces and turnips that mean are 15 inches in circumference. What other meaning agriculturist has bigger ones?

For the week ending last Saturday, the four men working the Discovery company's ground on Porcupine creek cleaned up 111¼ ounces—about $7.35 a day to the man.

Colonel Baker at Cranbrook is building a commodious, 4-story house. The basement will be used for storage purposes, the first floor for a general store, and the two upper stories for a residence.

The original locators of the Baldhead, a mineral claim on McCullough creek, in the Big Bend country, failed to do their assessment work in time, and Judge Sproat, then at Nelson, declared the ground vacant. John Sanderson and "Dutch Andy" started from Nelson to relocate the claim.

Messrs. Bray and Fernie, of Fort Steele, have discovered and located several new seams of coal in Crow's Nest Pass. Colonel Baker's company have also applied for several thousand acres more land in the same locality. A. P. Cummings, the surveyor, is now on his way to make the necessary surveys.

The Revelstoke smelting syndicate is making changes in its staff, and has employed a new foreman, William Smith being succeeded by a Mr. Lester, from Winnipeg. Their kiln of 80,000 bricks has also been successfully burned. Superintendent Campbell pronounces the brick of excellent quality.

In the McMurdo district, the company who is developing the Dalnard & Lowe claim has four men at work. The face of an open cut in the ledge on one of the claims shows six feet of solid ore. Parties representing Rand Brothers, of Vancouver, are expected in next week, and if the showing on these claims is up to their expectations, the working force will be increased to twenty men.

All the creeks and rivers are as low as they usually are in September, and steamboat navigation on the Columbia will probably close six weeks earlier than last year. The Kootenay is now fordable near Canal Flat.

About three miles of the wagon road towards Goldan were completed last month, leaving about 47 miles to be built. Now that funds are available, a larger force of men will be put on the work.

The Elsie company is working seven men and taking out about enough to pay expenses. The Donald company, in sinking a shaft, struck the rimrock of the creek at a depth of 32 feet, and will have to drift to get to bedrock in the channel. The company employs ten men, who work eight-hour shifts. The French company have in a flume for their waterwheel, and as soon as a pump arrives will begin taking the water out of the shaft.

New Westminster Notes.

From the Columbian.

Hartley Gisborne, superintendent government telegraph service, is registered at the Queen's Hotel.

The Oregonian's excursion party to Victoria leaves by the steamer Rainbow at 2 a. m., July 12th, and not by the C. P. R. steamer, as stated yesterday.

Over a hundred Chinamen went down river this morning to work in the canneries during the packing season. As usual their kits were a marvel to behold.

John McKenzie, of the Dominion lands department, left by the Atlantic express to-day on a tour across the continent, and will probably visit the Paris exhibition before returning home. Bon voyage.

The Surrey Agricultural Association have got the start on the other agricultural associations of the district and province, and have got their prize list issued. Nothing like being forward in these matters.

The game inspector, if there is such an official, should pay Westminster a visit. Grouse are being shot in this vicinity and are sold in the city with little attempt at concealment. This sort of thing will not do, and it must be prevented.

OUR CABLE LETTER.

Edmund Yates Discusses Royalty—The Queen Suffering From Rheumatism.

The Sullivan-Kilrain Fight—Shooting in Benicia—New Atlantic Line.

By Postal Telegraph.

New York, July 9.—Edmund Yates' London cable to the Tribune says: The Queen is suffering very much from lumbago and rheumatism, and on Thursday at Marlborough House it was quite apparent with what difficulty she walked, even with the aid of the arm of the Prince of Wales and her stick. She had not recovered from a chill caught during her journey from Scotland. She hardly stood at all at Marlborough House and her Indian attendant was close at hand all the time to give her a chair. She looked tired and was very red in the face, though very gracious and in good spirits. She wore her usual black dress and the suite with her were black also, but there seemed to be a little more white feather than usual in her bonnet, and it has white strings. It is curious that in spite of her diminutive size no one has more grace and dignity than the Queen, and when she speaks and moves about, or smiles, one quite loses consciousness of the fact that she is very small.

Nothing is more charming than to see the Prince of Wales with the Queen. His manner is so tender, differential and affectionate, and he watches over her with such care, attending to her every want, and suggesting anything which he thinks will please her. He walked very slowly and carefully with her on Thursday, for it evidently pains her and she had great difficulty in mounting the steps from the garden into Marlborough House and made the prince walk a step ahead of her and help her up.

The meeting between the Queen and the Shah was very funny. A conversation was carried on through the Persian minister. The Queen stood for a moment admiring the large emerald and diamond buckles the Shah wore on his waist band and coat, and having sat down she motioned him to a seat beside her, which he accepted, looking around for the Princess of Wales, who was immediately behind him, and whom he made sit on a chair on the other side of himself. The pantomime which expressed his wishes was irrepressibly funny and taxed the Princess greatly, for she bit her lips hard to keep from laughing. However, she must have got accustomed to it, for during the Shah's stay here it was evident on several occasions that she could hardly keep and look serious.

Jewels worn at the Court ball last week were magnificent. The bench of duchesses, marchionesses and countesses was ablaze with light. The Duchesses of Westminster, Leeds, Cleveland, Bedford, and Portland, wore the finest, but Lady Londonderry, Lady Brownlow, Lady Cadogan and Lady Beaufort ran them very close. No one's diamonds were any more magnificent than the Baroness Burdett-Coutts. She wore a tiara that went all around her head and looked like a complete crown of diamonds. Her other jewels were magnificent. Baroness De Worms blazed with jewels. The Duchess of Portland and the Princess Louise divided honors of the evening.

There was great amusement to see the family quadrille, with which royalty opened the ball; Lord Fife dancing with the Princess of Wales and the Prince of Wales with his daughter, Princess Louise, who looked bright and happy, and Lord Fife was in lover like attendance during the evening. The Duchess of Portland looked very handsome and evidently her lord and master was tuneonely proud of her, for he devoted himself to her all the evening. They seemed much more contented to talk to one another than to anyone else. Lord and Lady Randolph Churchill were sent for on the date during the evening by the Prince of Wales, and were presented to the Shah. He said nothing to them, but inspected Lady Randolph carefully, who bore the ordeal, which was rather trying, with more sang froid than her lord, who looked very bored. Lord Randolph stayed late at the palace, apparently enjoying himself, and went in to supper with his sister the Duchess of Roxburgh.

SULLIVAN-KILRAIN.

Some of the Seventy-five Rounds Fought by the Sluggers.

New Orleans, July 8.—The Sullivan-Kilrain fight occurred this morning at Richburg, Miss., 105 miles distant from New Orleans. Sullivan won in the 75th round. Neither of the combatants was seriously injured, although Kilrain was very weak at the close.

Kilrain won first fall and first blood. Sullivan got the first knockdown. Time of fight, 2 hours and 18 minutes. The first intimation of the result was brought to New Orleans by a special train, which made the run of 105 miles in 3 hours and ten minutes. There was no interference, and Kilrain was the first to sling his sister into the ring. He was seconded by Charlie Mitchell and Mike Donovan, with John Murphy as bottle-holder. Sullivan followed a few minutes later, and was loudly cheered. His seconds were Wm. Muldoon and Mike Cleary, with Dean C. Murphy, of Boston, as bottle-holder.

Pat Kenaick, of New Orleans, was suggested for referee by Kilrain, and John Fitzpatrick, also of New Orleans, by Sullivan. After some slight wrangling, Fitzpatrick was mutually agreed upon for referee.

Kilrain won the toss for position and selected the north-east corner, Sullivan taking the south-west. Just before time was called Kilrain stepped over to Sullivan and proffered to wager $1000 on the result, which was promptly accepted by Sullivan, and the money placed in Referee Fitzpatrick's hands.

THE FIGHT.

First round—Time was called at 10:40. Kilrain made a rush at Sullivan with his right, landing on the left of the neck. Both clinched and Kilrain gained the fall.

Second round—Sullivan feinted with the left, which Kilrain dodged. A clinch followed, Sullivan throwing Kilrain heavily.

3rd round—Kilrain rushed in and clinched, Sullivan avoiding the rush and dealing Jake a short arm blow in the neck. Sullivan followed with blows on the neck and ribs. Kilrain struck Sullivan twice below the belt. Cries of a foul which was not allowed.

4th round—Kilrain led, landing lightly, a clinch followed, Sullivan on top.

5th round—Kilrain began sparring for wind. Sullivan rushed and gained a cross-buttock lock, but Kilrain broke away, John leading and landing on the neck. Jake here began Mitchell's tactics, retreating all around the ring. Kilrain leading lightly on Sullivan's neck, Sullivan cross-countering heavily on the head and Kilrain went down in his corner.

6th round—Short-armed fighting was indulged in, Kilrain attacking John's ribs, and gaining first blood by a blow on the left ear.

7th round—Sullivan appeared bleeding. He landed viciously in Kilrain's face, gaining the first knock-down.

12th round—Kilrain rushed and clinched, trying to throw John, but failing. Jake's blows lacked strength, and the round ended with John clinching and throwing Jake heavily.

13th round—Sullivan landed on Kilrain's ribs, the latter playing for the stomach and striking foul blows repeatedly. John returned on the jaw and ribs, Kilrain slipping down to avoid punishment. In this round Kilrain badly spiked Sullivan's left foot.

Eighteenth round—Kilrain went down without receiving a blow, and John claimed a foul, but it was not allowed.

Nineteenth round—Both sparring for wind, Sullivan finally landing on Kilrain's ribs, the latter countering on Sullivan and went down from a light return on the head from Sullivan.

Twenty-first round—Kilrain landed on Sullivan's stomach, Sullivan returning on neck, and Kilrain resorted to hugging, Sullivan landing on Kilrain's jaw, the latter falling.

Twenty-fourth round—Sullivan began by trying to get a knock-out blow, Jake hugged and finally fell without being hit.

Twenty-seventh round—Both sparring for wind, Kilrain leading on Sullivan's jaw and clinching. Sullivan knocked Jake down in the latter's corner.

29th round—Sullivan followed Kilrain around the ring, calling to the referee to make him stand and fight. Jake went down without being struck, and Sullivan claimed the fight, which was not allowed.

42nd round—Sullivan opened heavily. Hard fighting followed, Kilrain going down from a light blow, John stumbling over him. Jake's seconds made claims of a "foul," which the referee would not allow.

43rd round—Sullivan landed on Jake's ribs and after a few passes, Kilrain went down without receiving a blow. Sullivan himself appealed to the referee, claiming "foul," but it was not allowed.

44th round—As soon as he reached the centre of the ring, John began vomiting freely, and it looked as if his stomach was weakening. Kilrain asked him to make the fight a draw, but Sullivan refused, and responded with a heavy blow on the ribs, knocking him down.

45th round—Sullivan smashed Kilrain in the ribs and then landed on the jaw, knocking him down and stamping on him. A load call of "foul" was not allowed.

In the forty-sixth round Kilrain began to show signs of weakness.

Fiftieth round—Sullivan led vigorously, Kilrain returning lightly and running away, John following and begging Jake to fight. The latter went down from a slight blow. Kilrain would smile but there was a gash still in his assumed good humor that was painful to witness. His strength was surely going and no one knew it better than Jake.

In the sixtieth round Jake went down without a blow, and loud cries of "foul" were heard on every side but were not allowed.

Kilrain continued to grow weaker and was frequently knocked down by blows in the face and body.

75th Round—Kilrain went down with a light blow on the jaw, and was contended by the referee. When time was called for the 76th round, Mitchell ran over to Sullivan's corner and asked him if he would give Kilrain a present provided he would throw up the sponge. Sullivan generously answered, "Of course I will." Mike Donovan threw up the sponge, and Sullivan had again proven his title as champion of the world. The only marks on Sullivan were a slight cut under the right and another in the left ear. Kilrain's body showed the effects of Sullivan's blows, and he was bleeding at the ears, nose and mouth.

The rounds which are undescribed were uneventful, Sullivan doing most of the slugging and Kilrain frequently going down to avoid punishment. The latter seldom had the best of it.

Sullivan was in the better condition. There was no doubt as to the final result from the first. Kilrain looked as if overtrained. He is pretty well used up and greatly dejected over his defeat. He intimates that he was drugged. His condition was the subject of universal and surprised comment from the start. He was sallow and unshaven and looked tired and nervous. His chest was narrow and his whole physique compared badly with Sullivan's. It is asserted that he weighed 195 and Sullivan 205, but there seemed at least 25 pounds difference between them.

Sullivan's fighting to-day was the most scientific he has ever done. Headundoed his old rushing tactics, husbanded his strength, kept cool, and seemed to recognize and respect the merits of his adversary.

New Orleans, July 9.—The next event over the Sullivan-Kilrain battle has nearly died out to-day, and except about saloons and various headquarters of the sporting fraternity the city is very quiet. Visitors to the fight were leaving in large numbers for the north, as there is nothing to remain here for, the result of yesterday's fight having been so decisive. All talk of another fight has been entirely given up and the chief desire of everybody is to get home as quickly as possible.

THE DERVISH ARMY.

Cairo, July 8.—Colonel Wadehouse, commander of the Egyptian forces, has informed the government that he has sighted the main body of the dervishes moving in a northerly direction. They are 5,000 strong and have 900 camels. Colonel Wadehouse does not think the force under his command strong enough to justify another attack upon the dervishes, but he is following with all his available troops in steamers. Meanwhile he advises the collection of a strong force at Assouan to co-operate with him.

GOOD CATCHES.

Glasgow, July 9.—A whaling vessel just arrived at Dundee reports the sealing and whaling in Greenland waters to be phenomenally successful this season.

DENING THE TIMES.

London, July 9.—Before the Parnell commission to-day Garrett M. Byrne, member of parliament for West Wicklow, declared he had never been in Waterford in his life, therefore he could not have made the Waterford speech which the Times alleged the witness delivered.

UNEASINESS IN MILITARY CIRCLES

London, July 9.—The non-arrival of news from Egypt since the defeat of Wad Hadla is causing considerable uneasiness in official quarters here. The government now are considering the question if it is not advisable to send reinforcements to Cook's Scheme from Malta.

PROVINCIAL COURT.

TO THE TIMES ONLY.

A Desperate Attempt by a Vancouver World Employee to Suicide.

The British Government Decline to Interfere in the Jesuit Estates Bill.

Special to The Times.

Winnipeg, July 9.—The funeral of ex-Premier Norquay took place from the parliament buildings yesterday, and was the largest ever seen in Winnipeg. It was attended by thousands. All places of business closed from four till six o'clock. Numerous floral offerings decorated the coffin, including one from Vancouver friends on the west, and Premier Blair of New Brunswick on the east.

SNATCHED A HANDFUL AND RAN.

London, Ont., July 9.—A sneak thief entered the London Loan and Savings secretary's office this afternoon, snatched a package of notes from the teller's desk and bolted. Seven hundred dollars were in the package.

KILLED WITH ONE BLOW.

Toronto, July 9.—Jas. Smith, a west end builder, was in a saloon with Hugh McKay, a carpenter, last evening, when Smith asked the latter for the payment of some money due him by McKay. Some words ensued. McKay, it is alleged, struck him and Smith fell dead. McKay gave himself up to the police.

BODY FOUND.

Montreal, July 9.—The body of the late Chas McFall, drowned at Brockville, was recovered this morning and brought here.

ONE FOR THE MINISTER.

Toronto, July 9.—Rev. S. H. Milligan, a prominent Presbyterian, in course of a sermon made some reference to Minister of Finance Foster's marriage. He said it was "a pity men who professed loyalty to the British constitution should, when it suits them, avail themselves of the most objectionable features of American legislation."

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.

A Young Man at Vancouver Tries Five Shots Into His Body.

Special to The Times.

Vancouver, July 9.—A most determined attempt at suicide was committed early this morning in a house on Homer street, by James L. Stein, who has been bookkeeper in the World office for the past six months. He fired five shots into his person, three of which entered within a quarter of an inch of his heart, one in the mouth and one in the forehead, but which did not penetrate the skull. This shot was first fired, after which he lay stunned for some time. On recovering the other attempts were made, without proving immediately successful. Strange to say no one heard the shots. He was found in his room at half past five o'clock this morning very weak. He stated he was suffering great pain, but was quite sensible. He gives no reason for the deed. Of late he has been drinking somewhat. He came from St. John, N. B., and had since his arrival here been considered a most steady and respectable young man, who attended strictly to his post of duty. He is about twenty-eight years of age. It is feared there are no hopes of his recovery, though much improved since early this morning. He now begins to live.

The strike is not yet settled.

J. Stanberg, contractor, has been missing since Sunday last at 4 o'clock in the afternoon. He left with the intention to see a doctor, as he had been complaining. There has been no trace of him since then and much anxiety is felt by his friends. Twenty-five dollars reward is offered for the recovery of him or his body.

FROM OTTAWA.

The Imperial Government Decline to Interfere in the Jesuit Question.

Special to The Times.

Ottawa, July 9.—It is understood that Hon. Mr. Lynch, Commissioner of Crown Lands in the Chapleau government, has been appointed a judge.

Two commissioners, Messrs. Gouin and McLeod, have been appointed to inquire into the herring fishing industry in Scotland and Holland. They sail from Quebec on Thursday.

The disallowance petition forwarded to the Imperial government through His Excellency the Governor-General, asking for interference in the Jesuit question, has been returned saying the matter was one for the Canadian government to deal with.

TO-DAY'S DESPATCHES.

Pittsburg, Pa., July 9.—A freight train on the Pennsylvania railroad was wrecked at Wilmerding, a few miles east of here, last night. Thirteen cars were derailed and the train caught fire from a carload of whiskey, which ignited from some unknown cause. Two bodies have been so far recovered from the wreck and it is said six or eight more at least are in the debris. Twenty-five people were on the train, according to a statement made by one who escaped. Of this number ten or twelve escaped. Hands of the train say fifteen were killed. A colored man sustained serious injuries. Two thirteen cars and engine are wholly wrecked. The accident was caused by an axle breaking. Names of killed and wounded were not ascertained.

SHOOTING AFFAIR.

Benicia, Cal., July 9.—At eight o'clock yesterday morning J. E. Crooks, president of the bank of Benicia, shot and it is believed fatally wounded a young man named Page Wingfield. Crooks was arrested. The cause is not yet ascertained. Wingfield met Crooks on the street and struck him in the face. Crooks drew a revolver and Wingfield, who is a much former then dead twice, the second shot striking Wingfield in the abdomen. It has been learned that the shooting was the result of a newspaper article prompted by Crooks.

THAT NEW LINE.

Quebec, July 9.—Anderson, manager of the new fast line of mail steamships, took a tour around the harbor to-day. The steamships Etruria, Parisian and Vancouver are mentioned as likely to form part of the initial fleet.

KILLED BY A STICK.

Mitchell, Ont., July 9.—A three year old child, daughter of Geo. Leek, of the Township of Logan, was accidentally killed yesterday while running a second with a sharpened stick in her mouth. She fell and the stick penetrating to the base of brain. Death resulted in a few hours.

Scissors was on the streets yesterday having recovered from a severe attack of illness.

THE BOARD OF TRADE.

Mr. JAMES ANGUS, in a forcible letter published in this issue, points out some of the inconsistencies of the Board of Trade report. On the whole the report has a very decided leaning towards free trade, which is somewhat surprising when we remember that the gentlemen who comprise the board were the leading supporters of such uncompromising protectionists as Messrs. BAKER and SHAKESPEARE. It does not detract from the importance of these remarkable declarations that they have reference only to such trade questions as concern this city and province, for after all the great question of protection, it matters not in what portion of the Dominion it is discussed, is determined largely by local or personal and therefore selfish considerations. The manufacturers of the Eastern Provinces demanded protection because they imagined it would put money in their pockets. The coal producers of Nova Scotia insisted upon a duty on foreign coal, while the Ontario consumers of Pennsylvania anthracite protested against the imposition of a duty on one of the first necessaries of life. In demanding reciprocity for the natural products of British Columbia, the Board of Trade is therefore advocating the interests of the province, although at the same time it is condemning the policy of a government which has hitherto received the unanimous support of our representatives. And as if to emphasize its new-found free trade views, the board protested, and successfully too, against a proposed increase of the duty on lead to $40 per ton, which was suggested by the Canadian Pacific Railway with a view to the development of the mining interests of the province. If the policy of the board in future is to be free trade pure and simple, the protest was consistent with the new faith, and as timely as it was effective. But, if, on the other hand the objection to the increased duty—a duty which would have been almost prohibitory, and hence calculated to foster a home industry—is due to the belief that there would be an increase in the price of lead used by our fish canners, it might be demonstrable, by such a protectionist for instance as E. Crow BAKER, M. P. that the principle of "the greatest good to the greatest number" had been unwittingly sacrificed for an insignificant benefit to a few, without a full consideration of the question. Although advocating the utmost freedom of trade, and opposed to a high tariff excepting for revenue producing purposes, we are not prepared to say that protection does not aid in establishing industries which would never get a footing in the country if outside competition were permitted to continue uncheck ed. And as long as protection is the policy of the country, free traders in British Columbia are justified in claiming that whatever local advantages it may possess should not be confined exclusively to the manufacturing provinces of the east. Thus far we have derived nothing but injury from the high tariff of the Dominion government, for the simple reason that we are purchasers of the protected manufactures and sellers to the United States of natural products which no amount of "protection" can benefit. We submit that if a duty of $40 a ton would have had the effect expected—the development of the lead mines of British Columbia—the canners might have borne the impost without grumbling for a few years, in consideration of the great benefits that might thereby accrue to the whole country. We hope such an excellent protectionist journal as the Colonist will be able to explain the position of the Conservative Board of Trade on this question.

THE COMMON SENSE OF IT.

The Nation, of New York, commenting on advices which it may be hoped are well-founded, to the effect that the Imperial government has no objection to the WELDON extradition act, says that this is a very important step in international law and practice, and one which might be and probably will be imitated generally among civilized states, after a brief trial of the experiment by Canada. "For the first time, we believe," says the Nation, "the principle has been recognized that the systematic surrender of fugitives from justice need not depend upon mutual agreements, on the principle of give-and-take, but that it may be properly conducted on the same lines as those which define and govern the surrender of culprits from one court jurisdiction to another in the same country. Also, that the reasons which apply to the surrender for crimes of a high grade, such as murder, robbery and forgery, apply also to the lesser offences of larceny, embezzlement and the obtaining of goods under false pretences. The surrender of criminals by the sovereign power, without any treaty or law of any kind, is not infrequent, and there has been one conspicuous case of this kind in our own history—that of ARGUELLES, the slave-trader, who was delivered to the Spanish authorities by order of Secretary SEWARD. But such transactions are dangerous from every point of view. The Canadian government, it seems to us, has marked an advance in civilization." It is worthy of note that if the Canadian innovation be allowed and prove workable, it will remove at a stroke the chronic difficulty which has prevented the completion of a comprehensive extradition treaty between Great Britain and the United States. Each has but to legislate according to its own views and make its own definitions and limitations. There will be very little difference in the results reached, and no friction in reaching them.

CATHOLICISM AND NEGROES.

The first colored man, or negro, to be explicit, to be elevated to the Catholic priesthood, was ordained on the 22nd of June last by Cardinal GIBBONS. This priest, of course, will work among his own people as a missionary, "and now," remarks the Oregonian, "the result will be that the Roman Catholic missionaries will capture the growing generations of negroes by their superior wisdom and humanity, for in the whole history of the Church of Rome, there has been no time when the humblest and most wretched son of the church, no matter what his color or lineage, was not welcom to sit in her most gorgeous church edifices, whether in Europe or America." The trouble seems to lie in the fact that the Protestant churches in the United States are in a constant wrangle over the negro because the lay members insist that the color line shall be drawn as sternly in the church as in society and politics. It is insisted by the Episcopalians that colored clergymen shall not be admitted to seats in the annual convention on equal terms with white brethren, and this is the Methodist, Baptist and Presbyterian method. The Episcopal clergy contend that the drawing of the color line is un-Christian, but the majority of the laity treat with contempt the idea that the Christian church knows no difference in the color of men's skins.

The attitude of the Episcopal church of South Carolina has caused the secession of nearly one-half of the parishes of the diocese, and their refusal to attend the annual church convention. The negroes refuse to accept the seceeders' proposition of compromise, which is "to admit the negro clergymen who are now on the bishop's roll, but to bar out all new comers and to establish a sort of side convention for the negroes, subject to the bishop of the diocese." This refusal does the colored clergymen honor. They could not accept the proposal without consenting to libel Christianity by agreeing that there was no such thing as religious equality between blacks and whites, even at the communion table or in church conventions.

If the color line continues to be drawn by all the "orthodox" churches in the South, what will be the result? When the Southern negro finds out that a colored priest has all the privileges within the church of Rome that are enjoyed by the recently ordained son of GENERAL SHERMAN, it will not be surprising if that church should grow rapidly in the South at the expense of the Protestant churches that insist on an Ethiopian "annex" to the white organization.

If it be said that the conduct of the Catholic church is but the expression of its profound and historical worldly policy, it is sufficient to answer that it is a policy instinct with Christian justice and humanity, that it is religious equity and that it has succeeded because it has deserved to succeed; and just so sure as the Protestant churches persist in the present policy of drawing the color line in religion the negro in the South, who has any devotional nature, will sooner or later find his way to the church of Rome, which has no separate colored dioceses, as an insulting ecclesiastical reminder to the negro priest that the aristocracy of skin not only rules him out of politics and places of amusement, but out of the vast majority of the churches of his denomination.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The salary of Sir Matthew Baillie Begbie, as Chief Justice, for the last fiscal year, was $8820. This is a fraction over $15 94½ cents per day, Sundays and holidays included. We would here state the average salary of the "wretched reporters," but comparisons are odious, and we do not care to bring the unfortunate fellows into further contempt.

The German Empire does not pay its functionaries on our absurdly extravagant scale. Prince Bismarck receives £2,700 a year and a residence. The Foreign Secretary gets £2,500, including free quarters; the State Secretary, £1,800, including free quarters; the State Secretary of the Imperial Court of Justice, £1,200 and a house; the State Secretary of the Imperial Treasury, £1,000 and a house; the State Postmaster-General, £1,200 and a house; the Minister of War, £1,800 with a house, fuel and rations for eight horses; the Chief of the Admiralty, £1,800 with a house, the Chief of the General Staff, £1,500, a house, and rations for six horses. Fourteen commanding generals get £1,500 each, with free furnished quarters, and rations for eight horses. With regard to ambassadors, those in London and St. Petersburg are paid £7,500 each; those in Vienna, Constantinople and Paris, £6,000 each. Of ministers, £2,400 is paid at Brussels, £2,250 at Bucharest, £2,400 at The Hague, £2,700 at Madrid, £3,000 at Pekin, £2,400 at Rio Janeiro, £3,150 at Washington, £2,000 at Stockholm, £2,500 at Teheran, and £2,250 at Yeddo.

CITY AND PROVINCE.

—Three things to avoid—Idleness, loquacity and flippant jesting.

—A perfect specific, Dr. Sage's catarrh remedy.

—Three things to contend for—Honor, country and friends.

—Use the safe, pleasant and effectual worm killer, Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator; nothing equals it. Procure a bottle and take it home.

—Three things to like—Cordiality, good humor and cheerfulness.

—Have you tried Holloway's Corn Cure? It has no equal for removing those troublesome excrescences, as many have testified who have tried it.

—Three things to cultivate—Good books, good friends and good humor.

—Politeness is natural to some people, but it takes an excessive polite man to say "Excuse me!" when somebody else steps on his pet corn.

—To the victors belong the spoils. This is the reason why so many are spoiled by success.

—Hacking coughs lacerate the lungs and beget consumption; consumption fills our cemeteries. If nipped in the bud with Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, the destructive malady is deprived of its power. Pain is also subdued by this benign healing agent—corns, sores, frost-bites, burns and other troubles.

—Mr. J. R Allen, upholsterer, Toronto, sends us the following: "For six or seven years my wife suffered with dyspepsia, costiveness, inward piles and kidney complaint. We tried two physicians and any number of medicines without getting any relief, until we got a bottle of Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery. This was the first relief she got, and before one bottle was used the benefit she derived from it was beyond our expectation."

—The true philosophy of Medication is not to dose for symptoms, but to root out disease. Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic cure, the great blood purifier, has proved itself equal to this task. It is a most searching without being a violent remedy for constipation, biliousness and indigestion. It is as well adapted to the needs and physical temperaments of delicate females as to the more robust sex, and is a fine preventive of disease as well as remedy for it.

—James Callen, Pool's Island, N. F., writes:—"I have been watching the progress of Dr. Thomas Eclectric Oil since its introduction to this place, and with much pleasure state that my anticipations of its success have been fully realized, it having cured me of bronchitis and soreness of nose; while not a few of my 'rheumatic neighbors' (one old lady in particular) pronounce it to be the best article of its kind that has ever been brought before the public. Your medicine does not require any longer a sponsor, but if you wish me to act as such, I shall be only too happy to have my name connected with your prosperous child."

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria,
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria,
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria,
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

INEQUALITIES OF INCOME.

To the Editor of The Times:

Sir,—If it is not too late I would beg to remind you and your readers of an article on clerical incomes, which recently appeared in your paper, and which at the time I was too occupied to comment upon.

The article was based upon a suggestive parallel drawn by that suggestive gentleman, the editor of Truth, who from his facility diabolic might more reasonably be styled the father of lies. With a view to poisoning the public mind against some charitable endeavor, which was being made to supplement the incomes of certain of the poorer clergy, he had arranged in adjacent columns cases of clerical want and cases of clerical abundance. Here might be seen the Bishop of Durham rolling in his thousands, here the Rev. John Quiverful supporting fifteen children upon £10 per annum per head. I cannot, sir, do you and your readers the injustice to imagine that your sober reason will commend arguments against private charity based upon such comparisons. Would you decline to help the family of a poor bricklayer because the official income of a successful pleader is more than ample?

The whole matter is tersely disposed of in the following extract from the report of a meeting where it was proposed to reduce clerical incomes to a uniform and presumably adequate level:

"The Bishop and Mr. Glenn had been making the mistake that some of the advocates of Socialism did, in going on the assumption that all men are equal. In some of the speeches made on this subject at the Church Congress the most elementary principles had been overlooked by the very persons who were most ready to lay down the law for them. Unfortunately some of these things were ventilated by men who at all events from their Parliamentary and other experience ought to have informed themselves before speaking on the subject. They must provide not only rewards, but more means to those men who had the greatest powers and the will to use them. (Hear, hear.) A man who knows his power and tries to use them deserved to be placed in a position worthy of his powers. The reward of work was being placed in a position in which they would secure not rest, but in which they would have more work to do. Why were all the clergymen to be put down to £300 a year irrespective of their powers and their opportunities? He could not really speak with any coolness or calmness upon this question. He had been a clergyman for more years than he cared to say, and he did not know that in any one year his clerical income met his clerical expenditure. For years he worked to support himself and his family with the pen, and it was purely owing to the success which he had had in writing that he had been recognized and been placed in the position in which he now was. There were hundreds and thousands of clergymen in England who had to do the same thing. He confessed that personally he should have been better off had he remained in the position in which he was five years ago. He hoped they would excuse the warmth with which he had spoken, but he could expend very largely by what he knew of the Bishops of the present day. An example was to be found in their very dear friend Bishop Fraser, who was not only vilely misrepresented by the papers, but had to be defended by Mr. Hughes in the book he had written. This was not an isolated case. If Bishop Fraser's means were rather larger than those of other Bishops his liberality was proportionately large. (Here, hear, and applause.)"

Common Sense.

MR. REED REPLIES.

To the Editor of The Times:

Sir,—In the Times of July 8th appears an article signed by F. Joseph Spencer, entitled, "Father Enright's Challenge Accepted." Permit me to make a few remarks concerning it. The first few lines state an untruth. They are thus: "For some time past the tent preacher, Mr. Reid, of the Seventh Day Adventists, has been informing us that we who keep the Sunday for the Sabbath have the mark of the beast." In answer, I will say this is not the truth. We prove it. I will quote from what I said on it appears in the synopsis of my sermon upon that subject:

"What constitutes the mark of the beast? The mark of the beast is the change the beast has made in the law of God. Then all Sunday keepers, past or present, however eminent as servants of God, have had, or now have, the mark of the beast. We answer, not one. Why? Because they have not kept it, and are not keeping it with the issue before them presented in the prophecy. They supposed they were keeping the fourth commandment according to the will of God. But flashes of truth in these closing hours of time are to dispel all such darkness from every honest mind, and show this work in its true light. And this institution, although in itself the mark of the beast, does not become such in any individual case till such individual adopted it under the pressure of human laws, well knowing it to be a human institution set forth in opposition to the law of God."

Mr. Spencer, with a printed copy before him, has made several blunders in quoting Father Enright. Justice is due Father Enright by the print of a perfect copy as reported in the Hartford weekly Call of Feb. 22, 1884. On this Sunday question he spoke as follows:

"Christ gave the church the power to make laws binding upon the conscience. Show me one sect that claims or possesses the power to do so, save the Catholic church. There is none, and yet all Christendom acknowledges the power of the church to do so, as I will prove to you. For example, the observance of Sunday. How can other denominations keep this day? The bible commands you to keep the Sabbath day. 'Sunday is not the Sabbath day; no man dare assert that it is; for the bible states as plainly as words can make it that the seventh day is the Sabbath, i.e., Saturday; for we know Sunday to be the first day of the week. Besides, the Jews have been keeping the Sabbath unto the present day. I am not a rich man, but I will give a $1,000 to any man who will prove by the bible alone that Sunday is the day we are bound to keep. No, it cannot be done, it is impossible. The observance of Sunday is solely a law of the Catholic church, and therefore is not binding upon others. The Church changed the Sabbath to Sunday, and all the world bows down and worships upon that day, in silent obedience to the mandates of the Catholic church. Is this not a living miracle—that those who hate us so bitterly obey and acknowledge our power every week, and do not know it?"

Mr. Spencer says "I accept the challenge." If he does then he must prove by the bible alone that Sunday is the day we are bound to keep, for this is Father Enright's proposition. Yours truly,

H. W. Reed.

NICOLA HOPPERS.

Every Green Thing Eaten by the Omnivorous Insects.

We have been having beautiful weather, in fact only too the very heavy crop of grasshoppers hatched out. It has been one of the most favorable seasons for grain that we have had for years. But "the hopper, the hopper" is the cry all over Nicola. They have, in parts of Nicola, cleaned out the ranges, timothy meadow, grain and all. Farmers and stockmen are feeling very gloomy. The outlook for the coming winter is by no means bright. Stockmen are selling all the stock they can, and by all appearances farmers will have both seed and feed to buy for another year. They are beginning to cut what hay and grain there is left, which in some parts is very little indeed, and it is a race between mowers and hoppers, the latter predominating of course. If rain does not set in soon the ranges will be bare in a few weeks' time than they usually are in the spring. It is impossible to tell where it will all end. We usually try to look on the bright side of everything, and we sincerely hope that the cloud which hangs over our fair Nicola has a bright lining. If the darkest hour is just before day, what a bright day there must be about to break in this part. But why should we complain, when we read of the fearful calamities by flood and fire in other parts? We are still a very highly favored community.

MARINE MISHAPS.

A Year's Record of Disasters to Vessels in the Pacific Coast Trade.

A complete record of the disasters and minor mishaps to vessels in the Pacific coast trade from July 1, 1888, to July 1, 1889, has just been issued by the Daily Commercial News and Shipping List, from which it is learned that during the twelve months there were seventy-five total losses, including six steamers, nine iron and twenty-three wooden deep-water vessels.

The minor losses during the year have been unusually numerous, while the disasters have also born heavily on owners and underwriters and represent a serious loss of life and property.

Among the most important of the total losses may be mentioned the steamer Alaskan, which foundered off Cape Blanco on May 13th; part of the crew were drowned. The steamer City of Chester was run into and sunk by the steamer Oceanic, off the Presidio, August 22, 1888; seven lives were lost. Reckoned among the total losses are a number of vessels either bound to or sailing from port of which nothing has been heard for many months, and which with their crews are supposed to be lost.

The Dominion government has decided to reduce the rate of interest on the government and post office savings banks to 3½ per cent. on the first of October, under authority of the statute of last year. The reason of this step is cheapness of money, Canada only paying 3½ per cent. in England and Canadian banks 3 per cent. The total number of depositors with the government is 160,000, and the amount deposited to the end of June was $41,250,000. By reducing the interest to 3½ per cent. the government will save over two hundred thousand dollars.

In the Estate of — Thompson, Gunsmith, deceased, late of Victoria, B. C.

ALL PERSONS having left any Guns, etc., for repairs are requested to call on or before the 15th day of July, 1889, and prove property, as in default same will be sold.

11. So much of every By-Law which relates to revenue as is in anywise conflicts with or is inconsistent with the provisions of this By-Law is hereby repealed so far as is necessary to give full force and effect to this By-Law and no further.

THE BRITISH COLUMBIA FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY.

TAKES RISKS ON THE CASH OR MUTUAL PLANS.

As this is a Home Company, organized by British Columbians for the two-fold purpose of giving cheap insurance and keeping the money in this Province, it commends itself to the support of every insurer desiring the prosperity of this country.

In Ontario, the system of insurance, which is similar to that adopted by this Company, has been in highly successful operation for the past fifty years, and it has proved to be a great advantage to every insurer in it, by reducing the cost of insurance, and it is estimated that now three-fourths of the insurance effected in Ontario is carried by mutual companies.

ROYAL JUBILEE HOSPITAL.

The Meeting This Afternoon—Report from the Architect.

A meeting of the general committee of the Royal Jubilee Hospital was held this afternoon. Present were President Smith in the chair, Hon. Secretary Chudley, Messrs. John Teague, architect, Joshua Davies, Jas. Fell, J. D. Warren, Dr. McN. Jones and M. Sirouss.

The minutes of last meeting were read and adopted.

A communication was received from Mr. C. E. Pooley, on behalf of Mrs. Dunsmuir and family, acknowledging receipt of resolutions of condolence.

A communication was also read from Mrs. Nelson acknowledging receipt of a resolution expressive of the thanks of the board for assistance gracefully rendered on occasion of the laying of the corner stone; also a communication from Hon. J. W. Trutch, expressing his pleasure at learning that the work was progressing.

Mr. James Dunsmuir was elected a member of the general committee.

The claim of Pickering and Crompton for £55 for amended plans, considered at previous meetings, was laid over till Mr. Pickering's arrival.

BUILDING COMMITTEE.

After a trifle more business was passed general committee resolved into a meeting of building committee. Minutes of last meeting read and adopted.

Mr. Teague, architect, reported, "with the exception of the last pavilion, all other parts, viz., surgical and medical pavilions, administrative building, day rooms, and W. C. rooms and corridors are all enclosed, floors laid, lathed and ready for plaster. All the main piping connected with the plumbing, heating and ventilating are laid, the whole of which, I am glad to say, is done in a satisfactory manner, and I think within six weeks the whole structure will be up and the first coat of plaster on."

The second check for 25 per cent in favor of the contractors, Elford and Smith, was drawn and signed.

Seekeye Run.

Word came down on the steamer Rithet last night that the run of sockeyes in the Fraser river commenced yesterday. Fishermen were both busy and jubilant. The catch averaged 25 salmon to the boat.

Schlesinger & Benbow Pianos.

We have just received a consignment of the above pianos direct from the factory. These are the best instruments made in Germany, and are without doubt the best German pianos ever imported into this country. M. W. Waitt & Co.

Salmon for the East.

The first shipment of any consequence of Fraser River salmon to the east via the C. P. R. was sent overland to Toronto yesterday. It comprised 325 cases of the British American Packing Co.'s pack, Roe Young, manager. It was taken to New Westminster by the Rithet and there transferred to the cars.

A Family Quarrel.

One of our well known citizens went home to lunch to-day, at noon, and made a few remarks to his wife about the meat being tainted and the butter being greasy. She said she could not help it this hot weather. One word led to another and peace was only restored when he promised to get a refrigerator from McLennan & McFeely, Yates streets.

Substantial Present.

The steamer Rithet received a handsome present a few days ago from the steamer Kerluk, which latter vessel got foul of the sand heads last week. It was nothing more nor less than seventy tons of the best Nanaimo lump coal, which the captains of both steamers considered was a pity to throw overboard. Accordingly the captain of the Kerluk presented it to the captain of the Rithet.

Obituary.

John Milleto, for many years a miner at Wellington, died at St. Joseph's hospital to-day of cancer. Deceased made a trip to Italy some time ago to endeavor to obtain a cure for the affliction of which he suffered, but was unsuccessful. He was a single man and aged 42 years at the time of his death. The funeral will take place to-morrow under the auspices of the Odd Fellows and Knights of Pythias orders.

Grass Fire.

About 5 o'clock last evening a plot of dry grass near the band stand in the Park ignited from a match thrown down by a man after lighting his pipe. The plot burned is quite an extensive one, but the fire spent itself on reaching the road which it was unable to cross, thanks to the lack of wind. Too much care cannot be taken in the use of matches and pipes where the grass is so dry that ignition is possible from the slightest cause.

Texas Bonanza.

In reply to inquiries by a Free Press representative, Mr. Miller, who had just arrived from Texada, said that everything was progressing favorably and that the work of development was steadily going on in many of the claims. He said there was one portion of the island which had never been spoken about and which was rich in quartz. That was the country surrounding Paxton lake about a mile and a quarter from the iron mines. Mr. Miller himself has twelve claims there, and the Iron Mine Company have twenty five. The quartz has gone 146 ounces of silver and the ledge is 12 feet wide. Near by are two gold ledges that will run from $12 to $14.

A Coming Celebration.

On Friday next Victoria Loyal Orange Lodge, No. 1426, will hold a grand celebration at Beacon Hill park. The grand procession will leave Foresters' Hall at 11 o'clock in the morning and proceed to the Park, after which dinner will be provided for all the brethren and friends of the Order. Speeches will be delivered on the principles of the order. The public are cordially invited, and as no admission fee is to be charged the attendance is certain to be large. Delegations from all parts of the province will also be in attendance. Members of the order state the best band of musicians in the province have been engaged to discourse appropriate airs.

A Bad Woman.

The red haired woman known as Mrs. Mine Va Aller, who was mentioned in these columns a few days ago as being indicted by the grand jury at Tacoma for grand larceny, is the same woman who was arrested here charged with setting fire to the Occidental hotel. She was also suspected of robbing an hotel in Esquimalt. For ways that are dark she is an adept. For instance, to the lawyer she engaged to defend her for incendiarism alleged to have been committed here, she offered in payment a watch for his services. He accepted it until she redeemed it by giving him an order on parties in Winnipeg. When the orders were sent for collection the parties on whom they were drawn were found to be fictitious.

Columbia Navigation.

The lock on the canal at Canal Flat will be completed by the 20th, says Donald Truth. The difficulties Mr. Sinclair had to overcome in excavating for the foundations of the lock were great. Quicksand of apparently great depth and a large quantity of water had to be overcome; the latter alone requiring two steam pumps, with a capacity of 16,000 gallons per minute, to keep it in control. When completed the canal will be of little practical use until the Dominion government makes an appropriation to improve the Columbia river between the upper and lower lakes. It is expected that the little steamboat now being built by Messrs. Norbury & Phillips, of Tobacco Plains, will be completed in time to make a run through the canal on the day of the opening ceremonies. T. S. Gore will accept the canal on behalf of the provincial government.

A Midnight Affair.

The corner of Broad and Johnson Streets was the scene of a disgraceful affair at 12:30 last night. Two members of "O" Battery, slightly under the influence of liquor, after having created a disturbance in a neighboring saloon, wherein one put his fist through a panel of the door, started to raise a disturbance on the street. Officers Hawton and Lindsay were on hand and endeavored to remonstrate with the two men. Failing in this, and the men becoming ugly, the officers attempted to arrest them both. In a twinkling they made for the officers and in an instant Officer Hawton was laying on his back with the wiry battery man on top of him. Officer Lindsay was unable to master his man, who would have mastered him if several bystanders had not interfered. In the scuffle one of the "O" Battery men was severely pummeled by an outsider. They were both arrested, and in the police court this morning were each fined $10 and costs.

For Drop Letters.

Postmaster Shakespeare has supplied another convenience to the postoffice. Heretofore there has been no receptacle for drop letters inside of the lobby of the postoffice, all letters having to be mailed from the outside of the building. As inside receptacles are provided in other cities, strangers in Victoria were frequently puzzled to know how to get the letters into the office, while the inconvenience to citizens was often animadverted upon in terms anything but flattering to the Postoffice Department. The grievance was explained to Mr. Shakespeare some time ago, and he has supplied the deficiency. A convenient passage for mail matter has been cut in the partition just over the ladies wicket, and it will not now be necessary to stand on the sidewalk under the drippings of the eves when transferring letters to the tender mercies of the half dozen budding postmasters within. The postmaster is entitled to the thanks of our citizens for supplying this convenience.

SCHOONERS LOST.

The Hunting Schooners Otter and Hamilton Reported Lost.

A private letter received in the city today from San Francisco states that the schooner Otter, Captain Littlejohn, owned by H. Liebes & Co., San Francisco, is reported lost.

The whaling schooner Hamilton is also reported lost. Old Captain Lee, formerly master of the sealing schooner San Jose, was a passenger on her.

The Helen Blum, Captain Carlson, was reported with a catch of 50 sea otters.

HANDSOME INCREASE.

A Gain of Nearly three Million Dollars in the City's Valuation.

The work of the assistant assessors, Messrs. Dalby, Northcote and Dickinson, will be completed within ten days. At present they are engaged in valuing James Bay ward, which, when completed, will complete the city's assessment roll. Enough is known at present to be able to state that the assessed value of the city as computed by these gentlemen will approximate $8,000,000. Last year's assessment roll aggregated $5,757,895. It will thus be seen that the increase is nearly $3,000,000. At one per cent. rate of taxation, this means an addition of nearly $31,000 to the city's revenue, which clearly demonstrates that the board of aldermen in engaging the assistant assessors to equalize the assessed values of real property, did wisely and well. The burthens of taxation under the new assessment will be more equally distributed than ever before.

GOOD RUN OF SALMON.

The Steamer Sardonyx Brings Latest Intelligence.

The C. P. N. Company's steamer Sardonyx, Capt. Meyer, came from the north this afternoon. From Capt. Meyer and Purser Munro it is learned that there is nothing startling to report. There is a good run of salmon, and that is the most important item of news.

On the Naas river McLellan's cannery has 2,5000 cases, Findlay, Durham & Brodie 600 cases for two days fishing, and the Cascade 300 cases for one day's fishing.

On the Skeena the run is coming in good, and all the canneries have secured about 2,500 cases each. There are about 16,000 cases in all on the Skeena. Six hundred cases were brought down for the B. A. P. Co.

At Rivers Inlet each of the canneries had 500 cases, at Alert Bay 1,500 and prospects in both places good.

The Sardonyx met the flag ship and consorts, Amphion and Icarus, in Queen Charlotte Sound.

The American cutter Albatross was met on this side of Alert Bay. Following were the passengers: Miss Gertrude Moore, Mrs Meyer and family, Miss Hart, Miss Johnson, A. J. McLellan, D. Fee, William Brown, T. S. Roper, D. Campbell, J. Smithers, H. Knowles, A. Donaldson, Louis Wolfe, Tom Gamble, B. Munson.

The consignees were: Findlay D. & Brodie, P. McQuade & Son, John Barnsley, Thomas Earle, R. Ward, Hudson's Bay Co., Mrs W. McNeill, Welsh Rithet & Co., Mrs. Nelson, H. Short, Spratt & Gray, R Lawson, J. Engelhardt, S. Munson, S. Grant.

LICENSE REFUSED.

Chinese are House-Holders Within the Meaning of the Act.

An adjourned meeting of the licensing commissioners was held to-day to consider whether the application of Mr Fox for a license to sell liquors by wholesale and retail in premises situate on Cormorant street, between Store and Government streets, should be granted. Mayor Grant, Hon. A. N. Richards, police magistrate, and Ald. Harrison were on the bench. The case under consideration, on account of it being the first of the kind under the new municipal act, and new issues having arise, which had not been considered before, had become a cause celebre. The facts of the case were as follows: "Mr. Fox, in making his application for a license to sell liquor in the Chinese quarter of the city, presented a petition, as required by the act, which he claimed was signed by two-thirds of the resident lot owners and house holders in the block in which the premises to be licensed are situated and of the block opposite such premises. In doing this the applicant was of opinion that Chinese lot owners or Chinese householders could not be considered as such by the court. The court ruled otherwise, holding that Chinese lot owners, who are residents and Chinese householders must be considered in presenting a petition to the court for the granting of a license. The application was therefore not in form, not having the required number of signatures, and could not be allowed.

Mr. Carey, on behalf of the applicant, asked permission to withdraw the petition, which was granted. He said it would be presented in proper form at the next sitting.

In delivering the decision the mayor stated that he and the chief of police had made a personal inspection to ascertain how many householders or lot owners were entitled to sign a petition. Some time previously Mr. Gardner furnished the court with the names of a large number of Chinese who had to be considered for or against and aggregating more than the proportion represented in the applicants petition.

ALDERMEN'S REMUNERATION

A By-law to Pay Them Sixty Cents a Day for Paint Repairs.

Our city fathers, if we are correctly informed, are not content with honors merely but are seeking emoluments. They desire to be compensated for attending to the city's interests, and the medium which they demand is sixty cents a day, the financial equivalent of six drinks or six cigars according to their individual idiosyncrasies. Perhaps it is unkind of us to intimate that the administrators of the city's affairs are troubled with idiosyncrasies of the character mentioned, and so we will draw it milder by suggesting that the remuneration sought is to be regarded as a bonus merely to offset the wear and tear of the aldermanic pantaloons. To what other purpose the subsidy could be applied we are at a loss to determine. Sixty cents a day would scarcely pay an alderman's board unless he devoted a large proportion of his time to fasting and prayer, a feature which would go fearfully against his grain, if the Rev. Mr. Starr is good authority. As pin money for his better half it is cutting down appropriations to bad repair rates, while as a fund for raffles, church fairs, Sunday school ice cream, and other philanthropic investments, it is wholly inadequate. If the compensation was $15 94½ a day, the same as our Chief Justice, we might apprehend that mediocrity was going at a premium; but at it is 60 cents a day only which they demand, we can only conclude that our aldermen wish to be in a position which enables them to wear short summer coats without exciting invidious comment. If such be the animus of the by-law shortly to come before the council, we heartily endorse it. We are liberal or nothing, and to ask our aldermen to wear Prince Alberts at this season of the year, while the mayor disports himself in an abbreviated jacket, is to trespass on their ideas of comfort, and to establish, perhaps, a precedent in civic toilets not warranted by the close civic relationship supposed to exist between the council and its chairman. Nor are these the only reasons why our aldermen should be in a position to wear short-tailed coats. With the clergy making it hot for them, together with the heated term awaiting them in the "sweet by and by," unless they nobble up the morals of this city, common humanity requires that during their sojourn at the City Hall they should be so adorned from the waist downward as to be able to discuss municipal affairs in their shirt sleeves; and then again a pair of reinforced pants don't look so bad any how. Our customs collector wears pantaloons of that sort, and why might not aldermen? Besides, breeches of this description, while affording a sort of distinguishing badge by which an alderman would be recognized from the rear view as well as the front view, would also enable him while watching sewerage operations to seat himself on the curb stone with the equanimity born of the knowledge that his contingent fund for repairs was meant to subserve this very position. If the public attaches as much importance to sculptured aldermanic pantaloons as does THE TIMES, there is no reason why the sixty cent by-law should not go into effect. THE TIMES may sit on the fence along with the "veiled prophet," but there is nothing small about it on the matter of municipal expenditure, and so if our aldermen want 60 cents a day to repair the wear and tear incident to sitting often and long at the council board, why, by all means let the by-law pass.
